Collaboration strengthens practice. Access fuels impact.

DAFopedia is a curated, expert-driven educational resource helping advisors guide clients with confidence in donor-advised fund (DAF) giving and beyond. With DAFs expanding rapidly but educational resources lagging, we launched DAFopedia to modernize philanthropic training and equip the wealth industry with the tools it needs for today's giving landscape.

Written by advisors for advisors, DAFopedia draws on the collective intelligence of leaders from the wealth advisory and philanthropic sectors to help them navigate the evolving landscape of DAFs. It's the advisor's go-to resource for understanding what's happening, what works, and what's next in the world of DAF giving.
